Pete DeBoer - Head Coach

The 2024-25 season marked head coach Pete DeBoer's third with the club after being named the 10th head coach in Stars team history during the 2022 offseason. He guided Dallas to a 50-25-6 record to improve his regular-season record with the team to 149-68-29. Since DeBoer made his coaching debut with the Stars, no team in the NHL has accumulated more points or has a better points percentage. He concluded the regular season ranked 17th in NHL history in all-time coaching wins with 662.

The 2024-25 campaign marked the second consecutive year that DeBoer has coached the Stars to at least 50 wins. The team finished the regular season two wins and seven points shy of the 2023-24 total despite having lost 81 more games to injury compared to last season. Under DeBoer's tutelage, the 2024-25 season saw veterans Wyatt Johnston and Thomas Harley hit career highs in scoring.

DeBoer enters the 2025 Stanley Cup Playoffs with an 88-73 all-time playoff record, with his 88 playoff wins ranking 10th in NHL history and topping all active coaches. Those 88 victories have amounted to 17 series wins, which also ranks 10th in NHL history and sits one shy of the league lead among active coaches (Jon Cooper, 18). No coach in NHL history has a better record in game

7s than DeBoer, who is a perfect 8-0 in his career.

The 2025 postseason marks the 10th consecutive year in which a DeBoer-coached team has reached the playoffs, which trails only Paul Maurice (12) and Cooper (11) for the longest active run among head coaches. DeBoer is looking to reach the Conference Finals for the seventh time in his career, after previously doing so with New Jersey (2011-12), San Jose (2015-16, 2018-19), Vegas (2019-20) and Dallas (2022-23, 2023-24). Entering this postseason, DeBoer and Cooper are the only active coaches to reach the Conference Finals six separate times, with DeBoer being the only coach to achieve that feat with multiple teams.

PARTY LIKE IT'S 1999

The Stars enter the 2025 Stanley Cup Playoffs looking to win their second Stanley Cup in franchise history after defeating the Buffalo Sabres in six games to bring the team's first championship to Dallas in 1999. At the time of the Stars' first Stanley Cup win, eight players on the team's current roster had yet to be born: Oskar Bäck, Mavrik Bourque, Lian Bichsel, Thomas Harley, Miro Heiskanen, Wyatt Johnston, Nils Lundkvist and Jason Robertson had not been born yet. Heiskanen (July 18, 1999) and Robertson (July 22, 1999) were both born about a month after the Stars hoisted the Stanley Cup.

The Stars defeated the Sabres 2-1 on June 19, 1999 to secure the franchise's first-ever championship. On that day, the number one song in the United States was "If You Had My Love" by Jennifer Lopez and the number one movie was Disney's "Tarzan." June 19, 1999 also marked the first day of the 1999 FIFA Women's World Cup, which the United States would go on to win, led by superstars Mia Hamm and Brandi Chastain.

REGULAR SEASON RECAP

The Stars finished the 2024-25 regular season with a 50-26-6 record, ranking in the top five in the NHL this year in wins (tied fourth), points (fifth), goals for (275, tied third), goals for per game (3.35, tied third) and penalty kill (82.0 percent, tied fourth). The 2024-25 campaign marks the second straight year that Dallas has finished the regular season with at least 50 wins and the third consecutive year that the team concluded the regular season with a points percentage above .640. This season also sits near the top in the franchise record book in terms of single-season success with the team's 50 wins tying for the fourth-most in franchise history. The team's success this year comes in spite of logging 190 man games lost to injury, which includes significant stretches playing without Tyler Seguin (62 games), Miro Heiskanen (32 games), Nils Lundkvist (40 games), Mason Marchment (20 games) and others.

HOME COOKING

Dallas logged a 28-10-3 record in home games this season, which includes 40 games played at the American Airlines Center and one game played at Nokia Arena in Finland as part as the NHL's Global Series. The team's 28 home wins were just one shy of matching the franchise record set in 1998-99, and their 59 home points and .720 home points percentage were tied for the fourth- and fifth-best marks in franchise history.

Jason Robertson (43 points, 41 games played), Mikko Rantanen (44 points, 41 games played) and Roope Hintz (40 points, 39 games played) and Tyler Seguin (10 points, 10 games played) all played at a point-per-game pace in home games this year. Additionally, Thomas Harley concluded the regular season by recording 21 points (6-15—21) in his last 21 home games dating back to Dec. 31 His 21 points were tied for fifth among all NHL defensemen during that span.

CUP RUNNETH OVER

Tyler Seguin and Mikko Rantanen are the two players on Dallas' roster who have previously won the Stanley Cup. Seguin was a part of Boston's 2011 championship team and Rantanen lifted the Cup in 2022 with Colorado. Rantanen has totaled 101 points (34-67—101), which is tied for 13th in playoff scoring among active players. Stars defenseman Miro Heiskanen has notched 61 career playoff points (16-45—61), which ranks ninth among all active defensemen. The 2024 Stanley Cup Playoffs will mark the postseason debut for Oskar Bäck and Lian Bichsel.

FOR PETE'S SAKE

Head Coach Pete DeBoer enters the 2025 Stanley Cup Playoffs with an 88-73 all-time playoff record, with his 88 playoff wins ranking 10th in NHL history and topping all active coaches. Those 88 victories have amounted to 17 series wins, which also ranks 10th in NHL history and sits one shy of the league lead among active coaches (Jon Cooper, 18). No coach in NHL history has a better record in Game 7s than DeBoer, who is a perfect 8-0 in his career.

The 2025 postseason marks the 10th consecutive year in which a DeBoer-coached team has reached the playoffs, which trails only Paul Maurice (12) and Cooper (11) for the longest active run among head coaches. DeBoer is looking to reach the Conference Finals for the seventh time in his career, after previously doing so with New Jersey (2011-12), San Jose (2015-16, 2018-19), Vegas (2019-20) and Dallas (2022-23, 2023-24). Entering this postseason, DeBoer and Cooper are the only active coaches to reach the Conference Finals six separate times, with DeBoer being the only coach to achieve that feat with multiple teams.

THIRTY, FLIRTY AND THRIVING

Four skaters on Dallas' roster scored at least 30 goals this season: Jason Robertson (35), Wyatt Johnston (33), Mikko Rantanen (32) and Matt Duchene (30). The 2024-25 campaign marked the first time the Stars' roster has housed four 30-goal scorers since the 1992-93 season when Russ Courtnall (36), Ulf Dahlen (35), Dave Gagner (33) and Mike Modano (33) all scored at least 30 goals. The Stars and the Tampa Bay Lightning were the only teams to finish the regular season with four 30-goal scorers on their rosters.

IT TAKES TWO

Jake Oettinger and Casey DeSmith combined for a .907 save percentage and a 2.59 goals-against average. The duo's .907 save percentage was tied for the second-best mark during the 2024-25 regular season, marking the highest league ranking by a Stars tandem since 2019-20 when the team also ranked second with a .920 save percentage.

Oettinger (36) and DeSmith (14), both finished the regular season one victory shy of matching their career highs in wins. They each recorded two shutouts this season, are tied for the fifth-most career shutouts by active American netminders with 12 each.

GOING STREAKING

The Stars recorded two separate seven-game winning streaks this season, first from Dec. 29 to Jan. 11 and against from March 22 to April 3. Dallas was one of eight teams this season to have a win streak of at least seven games and one of four teams to have multiple win streaks of at least seven games, with the others being Carolina (3), Winnipeg (3) and Detroit (2). The team's seven game win streaks were both just one win shy of matching the franchise-long eight-game win streak that the Stars set last season from March 16 to April 3, 2024.

FINNISH MAFIA

Dallas will open the 2025 postseason with five Finnish players on its roster: Mikael Granlund, Miro Heiskanen, Roope Hintz, Esa Lindell and Mikko Rantanen. Rantanen (88 points, first), Hintz (67 points, fourth) and Granlund (66 points, fifth) all ranked in the top five among Finnish skaters in scoring during the regular season. Hintz was named one of the Stars alternate captains prior to the start of the regular season, with 2024-25 marking the first time that he and fellow Fins Miro Heiskanen and Esa Lindell are all a part of Dallas' leadership group. Heiskanen, Hintz and Lindell are three of five Finnish players in the NHL this season to be a part of their team's leadership group, joining Florida captain Aleksander Barkov and Carolina alternate Sebastian Aho. Rantanen served as one of Colorado's alternate captains prior to being traded to Carolina.

IRON MEN

The Stars had three players that appeared in every regular-season game for the club this year: Matt Duchene, Wyatt Johnston and Jason Robertson. The 2024-25 campaign will mark the second time in Robertson's career that he played in all 82 of Dallas' regular-season games after also doing so last year. Dallas' final regular-season game against Nashville was the 292nd consecutive game that Robertson played in, an Iron Man streak began on Jan. 20, 2022, which is tied for the ninth-longest active Iron Man streak in the NHL.

Johnston has played in every single regular-season game since he made his NHL debut on Oct. 13, 2022, making him one of 26 players in NHL history to begin their NHL career by playing in at least 246 consecutive games according to NHL Stats. His 246-game Iron Man streak is tied for the 18th-longest such streak in the NHL. The 2024-25 season marked the third time in his 16-year career that he has played in all of his team's regular-season games. Johnston was named the Second Star of the Week for the week ending on Nov. 17.

SEEING STARS

Three Dallas skaters earned Star of the Week honors this season: Roope Hintz, Matt Duchene and Mason Marchment. Hintz was named the league's Second Star of the Week twice this season, for the week ending on March 2 and again for the week ending on March 30, making him one of 13 players this season to be named a Star of the Week multiple times. Earlier in the season, Matt Duchene was named the Third Star of the Week for the week ending on Oct. 27 and Mason Marchment was named the Second Star of the Week for the week ending on Nov. 17.

KILLING IT

The Stars finished the 2024-25 season tied for fourth in the NHL with a 82 percent success rate on the penalty kill, allowing only 41 power-play goals on 228 opportunities. The 2024-25 campaign marks the third consecutive year that the Stars have finished the regular season with a penalty kill rate above 80 percent. The Stars penalty-killing unit was led by Esa Lindell, who led both the Stars and the NHL with 287:02 of total shorthanded ice time. His 287:02 of penalty-kill time was the third-highest total of his career and was nearly 10 more minutes than the second ranked player (Mike Matheson; 277:22).
